Collecting Unwanted Cell Phones for Soldiers

The office of Suffolk County Legislator Tom Cilmi is proud to kick-off our Cell Phones for Soldiers Campaign. We are collecting unwanted cell phones which will be recycled. Funds from the sale of these phones will be used to purchase international calling cards to help keep our soldiers overseas in touch with their families here at home.

Cell Phones for Soldiers, Inc. is 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization started in 2004 by the Bergquist family of Norwell, Massachusetts and is dedicated to providing cost-free communication services to active-duty military members and veterans.

More information on this program can be found at:

Anyone wishing to donate an unwanted cellphone can do so by dropping them off at Legislator Cilmi's office located at 96 East Main Street, Suite 5, East Islip. For more information, please contact Legislator Cilmi's Office at (631) 854-0940.
